Weekly Update and Information

Hi All

I hope all is well with you and you are looking forward to the break. We are half way through the academic year, time is flying!

We thoroughly enjoyed Investigators sharing their skills and progress in learning to play the clarinet in assembly yesterday. They sounded great, were in time and played so well; it was impressive!

On the first Monday back after half term, we are looking forward to an exciting assembly with 'Rock Steady', showcasing music and musical instruments.

Parent mornings for Explorers, Investigators and Enquirers will continue next half term. These will start the first week back and are on Thursday mornings, 8.45 – 9.00am.

For Adventurers and Thinkers, they are going to have a longer afternoon session again and this is on Tuesday 1st April, 2.30 – 3.10pm.

We are hoping to have two after school sports clubs next half term but are awaiting confirmation of these. If they are going ahead then letters will be sent out the first week back.

World Book Day is on Thursday 6th March. Children can come to school dressed as a book character or something to do with reading, if they / you want to. This is not an expectation and please do not feel pressured to be buying a costume. We will be doing lots to celebrate reading and books that week and on the Thursday. Dressing up is just an additional idea for the children to enjoy.

Can I please ask that all adults are mindful of their language on school grounds and at the school gates. Some adults are swearing and we do not want the children to hear this, and then use it.

Have a wonderful half term and look after yourselves. We look forward to seeing you on Monday 24th February, at 8.45am.

Kind regards, Miss Hurt
