Investigators Year 5 Autumn Term 2 Spellings

Week 1: Wk beginning: 2nd November Tested 9/11/26 Words ending in '-ance' and '-ancy'	Week 2: Wk beginning: 9th November Tested 16/11/26 Words ending in '-ent' and '-ence'
abundance	innocence
brilliance	decent
elegance	frequent
extravagance	emergent
tolerance	confidence
hesitancy	competence
relevancy	transparent
vacancy	eloquence
dominancy	violent
abundancy	intelligence
busy	calendar
business	caught
Week 3: Wk beginning: 16th November Tested 23/11/26 Words ending in -able and -ible	Week 4: Wk beginning: 23rd November Tested 30/11/26 Words ending in -ably and -ibly
dependable	reliably
comfortable	dependably
understandable	comfortably
reasonable	possibly
enjoyable	horribly
reliable	terribly
possible	visibly
horrible	incredibly
terrible	sensibly
incredible	legibly
centre	certain
century	circle

Week 5: Wk beginning: 30th November Tested 7/12/26 Challenge words	Week 6: Wk beginning: 7th December Tested 14/12/26 Words ending in '-able', where the 'e' from the root word remains accommodate available controversy dictionary marvellous opportunity secretary sincerely suggest twelfth complete consider	changeable noticeable manageable agreeable knowledgeable replaceable microwaveable salvageable rechargeable irreplaceable continue decide

Week 7: Wk beginning: 14th December

Tested 5/1/27

Adverbs of time

afterwards
immediately
earlier eventually previously finally recently
yesterday
tomorrow
whilst describe different

The children have 10 words based on the spelling pattern for the week, alongside 2 Common Exception Words that are used across their writing.

Dictation Sentences:

Week 1: The dancer performed with great elegance and brilliance at the show. Her success was due to years of practice and tolerance of difficult training.
Week 2: The confident speaker gave an eloquent presentation to the class. His intelligence and competence were evident in every answer he gave.
Week 3: The reliable guide gave understandable directions through the forest. Thanks to her dependable advice, the journey was enjoyable rather than terrible.
Week 4: The instructions were written clearly and legibly on the noticeboard. As a result, everyone followed them sensibly and completed the task reliably.
Week 5: The secretary checked the dictionary to confirm the correct spelling of a difficult word. Afterwards, she sincerely thanked the volunteers for their marvellous effort and support.
Week 6: The knowledgeable mechanic explained how the rechargeable battery worked. Because the damaged part was replaceable, the machine was completely salvageable.
Week 7: Yesterday, the team began their project and worked hard throughout the afternoon. Eventually, they finished it successfully and immediately started planning for tomorrow.