Weekly Update and Information

Hi All

What a week! We really have had an illness bug throughout school this week with many, many children absent. I hope those children, and also any adults, who have been poorly are feeling brighter and better. School has been very quiet!

On Wednesday, it is Enquirers' class assembly. This is in the hall, at 9.00am. There is a limit of two adults per child please due to space. This is just for Enquirers' parents / carers.

There will be no parent morning for Explorers, Investigators and Enquirers next week due to the assembly.

Letters will be coming out next week for EYFS Christmas Performance (Friday 12th December, 2.45pm); Year 1 and 2 Nativity (Friday 12th December, 9.15am and 2.00pm); the Christmas discos (Thursday 18th December after school) and KS2 Christmas Carol Service (Wednesday 17th and Friday 19th December, 9.15am). Slips will need returning to school please to book places at these events.

I am really hoping that we are back to all children be better and back in school next week and we can enjoy the count down to Christmas and the festivities we have planned.

Have a great weekend and take good care of yourselves. We very much look forward to seeing you on Monday, at 8.45am.

Kind regards, Miss Hurt
