Weekly Update and Information

Hi All

I hope you are well and getting into the festive spirit!

The children had a great time at the pantomime yesterday. It really is a great opportunity for the children to experience live theatre.

The three performances today from Adventurers and Thinkers were magical. The children were wonderful with their lines, their singing, their dancing and in their costumes. They really did themselves proud!

One page reports will be brought home today. These inform you of your child's achievement and learning attributes for this term.

Our final week of the school year is a busy, Christmassy one next week.

On Wednesday, it is our Christmas dinner and jumper day. If your child does not have a Christmas jumper, there are a few in school that they could have. If any of you have any ones that you don't need anymore, we are happy to have these and give to others.

On Wednesday, we also have our KS2 Christmas Carol Service in school at 9.15am. This is on Friday too at the same time. We can accommodate 1 adult at each performance OR 2 adults at one performance for each child. Please return a slip so we know numbers.

There will be no parent morning on Wednesday due to the Christmas Carol Service.

On Thursday, we have our Christmas discos, 3.30 – 4.30pm for Adventurers and Thinkers and 4.45 – 6.00pm for Explorers, Investigators and Enquirers. The reply slip needs to be returned so we know who is attending, with £3 paid on ParentPay please. Adventurers and Thinkers need to bring their party clothes and shoes into school on Thursday and change into them.

Have a great weekend and take good care. We very much look forward to seeing you on Monday, at 8.45am, for our last week of school for 2025!

Kind regards, Miss Hurt
